Mid-Summer Importation of

LONG KID GLOVES

= $2.38 =

Just arrived by express, in time for to-day's selling, this extremely good purchase of almost 300 pairs of 16-button length. actual $3.00 values, Long White Kid Gloves, to sell at $2.38 pair.

Beautiful Skins, soft and pliable, with Cleopatra Buttons, and a generous assortment of sizes.

Need we urge you to supply yourself liberally at this particular

Hosiery-Main Floor.

We close at days at Virginia Beach.

Mrs. Charles L. Cooke, of this city,

Miss Jane Baptist, of Richmond, who has been visiting at Buckroe Beach, is now stopping with friends at Ocean View.

NEWS OF ASHLAND

Miss Washington is the guest of Mrs.

Long Island, and Titus, Pa., where they will spend some time. Mr. and Mrs. Bryan will also attend the meeting was guest of Miss Virginia Henderson, in the American Bar Association Waynesboro, has returned to the city.

Miss Lola Brown, who has been a guest of Miss Virginia Henderson, in Waynesboro, has returned to the city.

Waynesboro, has returned to the city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Gunst and their party, who left Richmond several weeks ago for a tour of the New England States, are now at Oxford, Me. They are spending several days at the Oxford Spring House before starting on the return trip to Richmond.

leaving shortly to in Atlantic City.

Miss Louise Sta H. Ware are vis at Virginia Beach at the Oxford Spring House before starting on the return trip to Richmond.

Mrs. Edward B. Bruce, Miss Kathplace at Mount Washington. Mrs. Bruce and the Misses Bruce will shortly go to the White Sulphur Springs for the remainder of the season.

Reginald Bruce, of Fredericksburg, has been the guest of friends here, prior to a visit to Hanover.

Mrs. E. W. Parsin. arine B. Bruce and Miss Rosalind Bruce have been spending the early summer at "Prestwould," their country

To Motor North.

Mrs. George Mayo, who has been ill at her apartments at The Hanover on West Franklin Street, is now recuper-nting. Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Palen, of Newport News, who have been visiting Mrs. Mayo here, will leave for Boston in a few days, having shipped their car to that point. They will motor through the White Mountains will Mrs. Rosa Selkirk, of Richmond, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. in- Jones, in Spotsylvania. and will visit various shore and mointain resorts in New England before returning to their home.

Camping Trip.

City, after a visit to Mrs. W. J. Bright, di
One of the delightful social events in Newport News. one of the delightful social trip the senson was the camping trip ven by Miss Gay White, of Abing-n, for her house guests, Misses Hunt

Mrs. J. C. Holden and little daughter. Margaret, of Barton Heights, left yes-terday for Millboro, where they will remain for several weeks.

Mrs. William Hugh Owens, of 2766
Semmes Avenue, Woodland Heights.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Ashland, Va., August 15.—Rev. and Mrs. Gilchrist Herndon, of LaGrange, Ga., arrived to-day to visit the Misses

IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND the Daviop Mills: Richmond: Va.

RAISED FROM FLEISHMANN'S YEAST.

Hopkins Furniture Co. 7 West Broad St. Cash or Credit.

Specialists in Apparel for Broad at Second.

Sydnor & Hundley

OLD VETERANS

Cumberland Troop" and "Cumberland Grays" Have Their

Cumberland, Va., August 15 .- The Cumberland Troop and the Cumberland Grays held their annual reunion here yesterday. The event was of special interest and enjoyment. Comrade H. K. Adams, of the troop, called the meeting to order and nominated Captain John A. Booker, of the Grays, as chairman. Captain Booker made a

Social and Personal

Mr. and Mrs. George Bryan left town Thursday evening for Garden City, Long Island, and Titus, Pa., where they will spend some time. Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. and Mrs. Brit. And Mrs. George Bryan left town Who has been critically fil for the last they will spend some time. Mr. and Mrs. George Bryan left town who has been critically fil for the last they will spend some time. Mr. and Mrs. George Bryan left town who has been critically fil for the last they will spend some time. Mr. and Mrs. George Bryan left town who has been critically fil for the last they women served an elegant dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schwarzschild are Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schwarzschild are leaving shortly to spend a few weeks in Atlantic City.

Miss Maud Hyde recited "The Land of Lee." Paul McRae also responded to calls and made a speech C. D. Diggs followed with a clever and huare visiting in Norfolk and nie Blue Flag" was sung and the meeting was adjourned.

has gone to Basic City to spend several days with her sisters, Mrs. George C.

has gone to Basic City to spend several days with her sisters, Mrs. George C. Jordan and Mrs. Gordon.

Reginald Bruce, of Fredericksburg, has been the guest of friends here, prior to a visit to Hanover.

Mrs. E. W. Parrin, Mrs. W. O. Bask-orville and Miss Mattie Baskerville, of this city, are at the Brandon, in Waynesboro.

W. G. Kent, of Clifton Forge, has been spending several days with friends in this city.

Mrs. Rosa, Selkirk, of Richmond, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Jones, in Spotsylvania.

Miss Lillie Gary has returned to this city, after a visit to Mrs. W. J. Bright, in Newport News.

Miss Julia Henning, of this city, is spending some time at the Willoughby Beach Hotel.

Mrs. William Eubank and her sister, Miss Cosby, are guests of relatives near Little Plymouth.

CAMPBELL FOR WILLIAMS.

Official Canvass Gives Him County by Majority of Five.

Lypchburg, Va. August 15.—The official canvass of the vote of Campbell County in the Vole Illumy of five August 15.—The official vote for Attorney-General Spave Pollard a plurality of four votes.

The unofficial vote for Attorney-General Pollard a plurality of four votes.

The unofficial vote for Attorney-General Pollard a plurality

Aud Messrs. W. Y. White, Greenfield:
Carrington McFarland, Philadelphia:
A. W. Aston, Meadow View; Phil
Roper, Petersburg, Va.; Dr. A. M.
Willis, Richmond; Victor Payne, Johnson City, Tenn.; T. P. Trigg, Jr., Richmond, Dr. J. C. Motley and Preston W.

Miss Martha Bell is spending some flower girls.

Ville recently, has returned to her home.

Misses Annie Lacks and Emily White, of this city, are guests of Misses Addle and Brunetta Lacks, near Clover, for a week.

Miss Martha Bell is spending some flower girls.

In Bluefield.

Miss Louise Allen left this week for Bluefield, W. Va., where she expects to spend some time as the guest of her home in this citry. Miss Allen has been visiting her aunt. Mrs. J. A. Yates, in Houston, has returned to this citry. Salem for the past sevieral days.

In and Out of Town.

Miss Blanche Patton, of Danville, is the guest of relatives on West Franklin Street for a short stay.

Miss Alice Neal, of Danville, arrived here Tuesday for a visit to relatives the guest of relatives on West Franklin Street for a short stay.

Miss Jane Baptist, of Richmond, who Medical College of Virginia, is spending his vacation in West Virginia.

HALHIMERS

Saturday Sale of Women's and Children's Hosiery

Children's Plaid Top Sox, sizes up to 7½; these sold from 12½c to 25c per pair; August clean-up sale 10c price Ladies' Fine Lisle Thread Hose, in black, tan and white; regular price 19e and 25e; clean-up 15c heavy weight, in black only; regular price $2.25; clean-up $1.50

Fine Boot Silk Hose, in every all guaranteed absolutely the best wearing hose made for chil- 29c

FIRST YEAR'S RESULTS VERY SATISFACTORY

Extensive Improvements in Fredericks-burg Made by City Commissioner.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Fredericksburg, Va., August 15 .rst year of Fredericksburg's new form
f government under the city commisoner plan has been completed here, ind the results are most gratifying, he city commissioner is R. Stuart oyer, who commenced his duties Auust 15, 1912, and during the year he as made extensive improvements, esecially to the streets of the city, and has administered all of the affairs of is office with exceptional ability. The results are entirely satisfactory not high to the officials of Fredericksburg, but to citizens generally. Mr. Royer meeting with the earnest co-operaon of all good citizens in his efforts be improve the city and make the resent form of government entirely stisfactory.

Dr. Anne Humphreys formerly a first year of Fredericksburg's new form present form of government entirely satisfactory.

Dr. Anne Humphreys, formerly a member of the faculty of Fredericksburg State Normal School, will go to China as a medical missionary, and expects to remain for the next seven years. She is now spending a few weeks at her home before leaving on September 1 for San Francisco, and will sail from that port on September 11 for China. Dr. Humphreys has many friends here, who wish for her great success in her new field.

News has been received here of the death of Herbert Hawkins, of Cumberland, Md. who was killed by a Baltimore and Ohlo train near Grafton, W. Va. Mr. Hawkins was an employe of the railroad, and was a brother of Mrs. W. R. Lucas, of this city. The body will be taken to Warrenton, where the funeral will be held Saturday, and Mr. and Mrs. Lucas will attend the funeral.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH.

laborers had a narrow escape from death here this noon when several hundred pounds of loose earth fell upon them while they were excavating near the electric light plant. The avalanche covered the men up, and they were rescued only after strenuous efforts on the part of others who were working All were nearly overcome by suffo-cation when recovered, but none was

Will Deepen Harbor.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Washington, August 15.—A plea to push construction of a special dredge to be used in deepening the harbor off
Atlantic City was to-day favorably received by Acting Secretary of War Breckenridge.

FAMOUS CARD SHARP ONCE MORE AT LIBERTY

Baron Korff-Koenig Is Released From Moabite Prison in

who has been a frequent visitor here in the New World, is once more at liberty; a fact of which the police in prison at Berlin, yet it was found im-possible to execute them, owing to the fact that he had been extradited from England on a charge of swindling at cards, and that the extradition treaty be held or tried for any other. Those armed with warrants for his capture were warned that he could leave the country with molestation, and that it was not until he had done so that they could take steps to have him recaptured and extradited anew. While there was no doubt whatsoever as to his guilt of the particular charge on which he was extradited. namely, of swindling by means of cheating at cards, yet the evidence against him was of a most unsatisfacagainst him was of a most unsatisfac-tory character. His principal victims left the country rather than appear against him, and the result was that after being detained in the Moabite year, the authorities were obliged to of Automobile Clubs of Europe.

sador of that name in London, the Sicilian "Prince of Formosa," who was Roumanian of the name of Bujas, a German Baron Schenck zu Schweinsburg, and an Englishman who styles himself "Captain" Newton, and who claims to have served in the English panied by Prince Formosa, scion of any legal right to the title he as-Chicago and in other leading cities of ways extremely well groomed, apparently well bred, with agreeable manners, a delightful fund of anecdote, found no difficulty in picking up acquaintances, and sooner or later result that the strangers were vic-timized, in some instances to a very large amount. In most cases the vic-Ernest Jaumsen May Land.

Washington, August 15.—An order permitting Ernest Jaumsen, a German journalist, to land and remain in this country was issued to-day by Commissioner-General of Immigration Caminetti. Jaumsen was halted at the port of Boston on a charge that he was a Socialist and likely to become a public charge.

Limized, in some instances the victims said nothing, preferring the loss of their money to the ridicule which they felt they would be subjected to at having allowed themselves to be duped by men who are professional crocks.

The impudence of the soi-disant Baron Koenig is amost beyond belief.

Negro Laborers Nearly Sufficiate When Invited to most of the official receptions and entertainments, and when tively brief periods when either King of national reputation, he fleeced a young American at cards Oscar or his son, the crown prince.

J.B. Mosby & Co.

BRACELETS,

CAMEO BROOCHES.

Smith & Webster

Special prices on White Canvas Shoes

New Method Gas Ranges PETTIT & CO.'S?

lodged charges against him with the management of the hotel at which he was staying, and with the Dutch Berlin.

BY LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

BARON KORFF-KOENIG, chief of one of the cleverest and most successful bands of international card sharpers and swindlers, and who has been a frequent visitor here.

Berlin.

By LA MARQUISE DE FONTENOY.

Control of the hotel people were so much impressed by his importance that they asked, not him, but her, to vacate her rooms with her son, while the Dutch police refused to entertain the accusation against one who was so obviously on the pleasantest of terms with most of the foreign dignitaries and plen protectivities agreemented in the angles in the police.

the United States and in Canada would do well to take note.

Baron Koenig has on several courts in England; once as defendant in a particular discrete discr Although there were nearly a hun- ticularly disgraceful suit for betrayal dred warrants out against him for swindling, when he was released the other day from the great Moabite and the other as witness in a libely suit, the indexes both times and the other as witness in a libely suit. suit; the judges both times denounc-ing him from the bench as a despicable scoundel.

Captain Newton's name, too, is well known to the police of New York, and particularly provides that a man who it may be remembered that a woman is extradited for one offense cannot described as Mrs. Newton, and as his described as Mrs. Newton, and as his she had made at Larchmont.

Baroness Van Zuylen, of Paris, who was so foolish as to send a servant to cash at her bank in that city a check for $0,000 francs, with which the man detamped, can well anord to lose the money, being the only child and heiress of the late Baron Solomon Rothschild, of Paris, while her huspand, a Dutchman, is Baron Stephen Van Zuylen Van Nyevett, Stephen Van Zuylen Van Nyevett, of the Aero Club of France, prison at Berlin during an investiga-tion which lasted for more than a and of the International Association premacy in the breed were theirs and the water who belongs to any automobile or aero club, are still in mourning for their eldest son, who, after having broken his arm at cycling, a less society. The Mayflower carried the secret of the stricket a couple of this at football arrested a couple of years ago at the Anglo-American Travelers' Club in Paris, by the French police, and expelled from the country as a card sharper, his wife, moreover, figuring in a very scandalous case the other day in London, while others were a Rountry and Travelers' Ruts. festive dinner.

of St. Honore d'Eylau. For the walls public subscriptions taken of the entire edifice were hung with United States and England. army during the Boer War. of the entire edifice were hung Baron Koenig, whose operations black draperies, adorned with have extended all the way from Cal-cutta to Buenos Aires, and from San Francisco, Montreal and New York, to Cairo, when last over here was accom-cutta to Buenos Aires, and from San of the old Dutch house of Van Zuylen, and their motto, which is as follows: "Zuylen! Zuylen! Non titubans!" but without English as, "Zuylen! Zuylen! do not itle he assumed, and by Captain Newton, and the fact that the convivial habits of they made many dupes in New York, the family have been notorious for cious woman, who, despite her German birth, became a great favorite on the banks of the Seine. As I menman birth, became a great favorite on the banks of the Seine. As I mentioned the other day in these letters that there are no titles of nobility in Sweden, it is necessary to explain that her husband's title of baron is a German one, and that he is the head of a branch of the old German noble a branch of the old German noble. a branch of the old German noble house of Von Wedel, which settled about a hundred years ago in Norway.

Baron Wedel-Jarlsberg, prior to the Baron Koenig is amost beyond belief, secession of Norway from Sweden, During the last peace conference at was grand master of the court of [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Danville, Va., August 15.—Five negro laborers had a narrow escape from death here this noon when several nundred pounds of loose earth fell upon them while they were excavating near the electric light plant. The avalanche covered the men up, and they were rescued only after strenuous efforts on

D. MOSDY&CO.

Parasols at Special Prices
To-Day.

The disping bureau people followed instructions, and now present the history of one year in the life of this especial man.

The history ends just after election, and intrusted her to be the grand mistress to her household. and intrusted her with the task of organizing it; a very difficult and dell-cate plece of business, owing to the intense democracy and even republicanism of the Norwegians of every class. Later on, the Wedel-Jarlabergs, who are among the largest landowners in Norway, were sent to represent the history of one year in the life of this especial man.

The history ends just after election, and now present the history of one year in the life of this especial man.

The history ends just after election, and now present the history of one year in the life of this especial man.

The history ends just after election, and now present the history of one year in the life of this especial man.

The history ends just after election, and now present the history of one year in the life of this especial man.

The history ends just after election, and now present the bespecial man.

The history ends just after election, and now present the life of this especial man.

The histor the kingdom in France. The baroness was a native of Aix-la-Chapelle, the daughter of a Baron Wagner of that

(Copyright, 1913, by the Brentwood Company.)

Carter-Pinckard.

Carter—Piuckard.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lancaster, Va., August 15.—A marriage of great interest took place here yesterday, when Charles Francis Carter and Miss Grace Gregory Pinckard, both of this county, were married at the home of Philip M. Gresham, brother-in-law of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. L. R. Combs, rector of the Episcopal churches in Lancaster. Owing to the iliness of Mrs. Gresham, the sister of the bride, the marriage was attended only by the near relatives of the contracting parties. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Carter motored to Coan Wharf, on the Potomac, where they took the steamer for Washington city, from which they will make an extended tour through the Northeastern States.

The bride is the daughter of the late Dr. F. Asbury Pinckard and Mrs. Elizabeth K. Pinckard, and is one of the most attractive young women of this section. The groom is a member of the Carter family of Lancaster, of which Robert (King) Carter was the most noted representative. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Carter will reside in Richmond, where Mr. Carter is engaged in business.

ADVENTISTS AT PORT NORFOLK. President W. J. Stone, of Richmond,

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Portsmouth, Va., August 15.—The Seventh Day Adventist Conference and Camp-Meeting, which is to continue from August 14 to 24, opened last even-

Professor E. G. Salisbury, president of Mount Vernon College, and Pastor W. W. Walker, of Richmond, are among the speakers to arrive yesterday. Dele-gates and people are arriving from various parts of the State.

tality."
Mr. Stone spoke to the subject, "God's Message for To-Day,"

Wedding Gifts

Have an added appreciation when they come from this representative SCHWARZSCHILD BROS., Richmond's Leading Jewelers, Second and Broad Sts.

PILGRIM FATHERS COMMEMORATED

Monument Unveiled on Spot From Which They Embarked on Mayflower.

Southampton, England, August 15 .--A memorial in celebration of the ter-centenary of the departure of the Pilgrims from Southampton for America was unveiled here to-day by Walter Hines Page, the United States ambas-sador. It is a column erected on the site of the pier from which they emwife, became involved some years ago barked on the Mayflower. The cerein a charge of theft of diamonds brought against her by a New York woman, living somewhere on Central Park west, and whose acquaintance were made by members of the Alden, Winslow and Brewster families, and by Joseph G. Butler, of Youngstown Ohio, who unveiled the "Ohio panel" at the base of the monument.

Ambassador Page dedicated the monument with an oration in which he quoted James Russell Lowell's say-ing that the Pilgrims were only colonists who went in search of God in-year, the authorities were obliged to let him go.

Baron and Baroness Van Zuylen, who have a very large number of American friends, and whose name is Count Gisbert Wolff-Metternich, nephew of the former German ambastic the water who belongs to any automobile Clubs of Europe.

Baron and Baroness Van Zuylen, who is a word the water and should always be theirs. In all the combinations of the races of men and in all the workings of circumstance, no other fusion of great forces was ever so nearly invincible.

"Freedom to worship led straight to mobile Clubs of Europe.

The monument, designed by R. Lucas, is a column of stone with The circumstances of his death were brought home in an unexpected fashion at his funeral in the Church grims. The cost was defrayed from TURNED OVER TO POLICE.

and their motto, which is as follows:
"Zuylen! Zuylen! Non titubans!"
Which may be roughly rendered in English as, "Zuylen! Zuylen! do not stagger!" Thus bearing testimony to the fact that the convivial habits of the family have been notorious for many centuries past.

Parisian society has just sustained a severe loss through the sudden death there of the wife of the Norwegian envoy, Baron von Wedel-Jarisberg. She was a very handsome and gracious woman, who, despite her German birth, became a great favorite on the banks of the Seine. As I men-Man, Apparently Insane, Creates Excite-

Remarkable Christmas Present

Among the curious Christmas pres-serted amount to 153,252.

In actual time, a very strict record of which has been kept, the work has required sixty-four working days throughout the year, and has kept in employment during that time thirty people as readers, clippers, sorters, mounters and binders. Every newspaper of importance is represented.

This is merely a specimen of some of the unique orders which get into the Burrelle Bureau, for the extent to which clippings are used by individuals and by business concerns seems to be remarkable.

remarkable. There are many people in private as well as in public life who need press clippings and don't know it. It might be well for them to look up this man Burrelle, who is said to be so well known that a letter simply addressed "Burrelle, New York," will reach him with no delay. (Advertisement.)

Pure chemicals are as essential as the correct proportions.

Prescription Druggists.

Rountree-Sutherland-Cherry Corporation

WE MAKE A SPECIALTY of packing household goods and china

PUBLITY 10E REAM Same Quality Every Day. Munroe 1841.

of her sister, Mrs. William Taliaferro. Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins and Miss Hopkins, of Richmond, are at the Henry Clay Inn. The watermelon feast and informal dance given at the Henry Clay Inn on Wednesday night by Miss Dorothy Cullen, was one of the most delightful affairs of the season. Miss Cullen, who is spending the summer at the Inn with her mother, Mrs. Carrie Cullen, is very popular here. Her guests were Misses Sara Blasingame, Virginia Howison, Pattie Leitch, Isabel Midyette, Virginia Potts, Nancy Midyette, Anna Hart Hopkins, and Joe Bruce, Willie Fox, Tom Bruce. Leitch Wright, Morris Lancaster, Joe Potts, Webb Midyette, George Rice, Borden Rice, Edward Rice and others; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Potts, Mr. and Mrs. Morris Lancaster, Joe Willie Mrs. Mr. and Mrs. Mrs. Doswell. Mesdames Anna Carr, B. M. Shepherd, Wallerstein. Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Ellis have returned from a visit to Atlantic City. Among the many enjoyable affairs arranged for Miss Pearl Woolfolk and her house guests was the hayride on Friday night to Newman's Mill, where a delightful supper was served. Mrs. E. W. Woolfolk chaperoned, and the guests included Misses Louise Lambert, of Alabama: Helen Shehan, of Roanoke; Elizabeth Chenery, Caroline Ellis, Martha Hughes, Virginia Marshall, Denzell Hunt, Nancy Sydnor, Ruth Blakey and Ophelia Nelson, and Webb Midyette, Morris Lancaster, Edmund DeJarnette, Lewis Blanton, Boxley Vaughan, Lawrence Riker, Andrew Ellis, Edmund Woolfolk, Jim Hughes, Joe Bruce, George Rice, Murrell Luck, Roper Woolfolk, Earl Quarles and Winston Woolfolk. Washington, August 15.—Thomas E. Ewing, of New York, appointed Commissioner of Patents by President Wilson, was formally sworn into office to-day. Seventh and Grace Streets.

Annual Meeting. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

most appropriate address of welcome. In the absence of the speaker of the day, the Rev. Mr. Payne responded to calls and made a short address, full of brotherly love and soldierly tenderness. He concluded his address by urging the few who are left to use their efforts to uplift the world to the glory of God. He was followed by Trooper Sam Ford, of Lynchburg, who was a bit "reco and Guernsey.

CAMPBELL FOR WILLIAMS.

The party left by private conveyance Thursday morning and pitched tents in the evening at "Wild Waters on the Holston," the summer cottage of Captain J. L. White, where they remained until Monday evening.

Those composing the party were Mrs. Clarence B. Penn, Los Angeles, Cal., a sister of Miss White, Misses Guernsey, New York, Zana Hunt, Atlanta; Shelby Patton, Huntsville, Ala: Janie Penn and Margaret Trigg, Abingdon; Elise White, Detroit, Mich., and Messrs. W. Y. White, Greenfield;

Mrs. William Eubank and her sister, Martin, 200.

Mrs. Clarence B. Penn, Los Angeles, Cosby, are guests of relatives near little Plymouth.

Mrs. E. F. Fisher and her son, Charles, Commer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Livick, in Staunton.

Mrs. Clarence B. Penn, Los Angeles, Currence B. Penn, Los Angeles, Livick, in Staunton.

Mrs. Clarence B. Penn, Los Angeles, Currence B. Penn, Los Angeles, Livick, in Staunton.

Mrs. Clarence B. Penn, Los Angeles, Livick, in Staunton.

Mrs. E. F. Fisher and her son, Charles, Commer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Livick, in Staunton.

Miss Muriel Moore, who has been visiting relatives and friends in Scotts, Abingdon; Elize White, Detroit, Mich., and Messrs. W. Y. White, Greenfield;

Missea Annie Lacks and Emily White.

Mrs. William Eubank and her sister, Martin, 200.

Lungdale—Lec.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

Lynchburg, Va., August 15.—A beautiful tableaux wedding was solemnized Thursday night at the home of Lynchburg, was married to Hartley Langdale, of Valesta, Ga. The Celebrant was the Rev. W. W. Hamilton, D. D., of the First Baptist Church.

Miss Elizabeth Coleman was the maid mond: Dr. J. C. Motley and Preston W. Campbell, Ablingdon.

Mrs. Clothler Entertains.

Mrs. John D. Clothler, of West Grace

Street, who is spending the summer in Staunton, entertained several of her friends very delightfully last Wednesday evening. Mrs. Clothler is now the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hogshead, in Staunton, and will later visit.

Miss Martha Bell is spending some dime with relatives in Maryland, because of Maryland, because of Mrs. M. S. Lee, and Mr. Langdale is a practicing attorney at law at Valdon, where they will reside after a trip to Asheville and Lake Toxabend.

Miss Martha Bell is spending some dime with relatives in Maryland, because of Mrs. M. S. Lee, and Mr. Langdale is a practicing attorney at law at Valdon, where they will reside after a trip to Asheville and Lake Toxabend.

Miss Martha Bell is spending some dime with relatives in Maryland, because of Mrs. M. S. Lee, and Mr. Langdale is a practicing attorney at law at Valdon, where they will reside after a trip to Asheville and Lake Toxabend.

Miss Martha Bell is spending some dime with relatives in Maryland, because of Mrs. M. S. Lee, and Mr. Langdale is a practicing attorney at law at Valdon, where they will reside after a trip to Asheville and Lake Toxabend.

Miss Martha Bell is spending some dime with relatives in Maryland, because of Mrs. M. S. Lee, and Mr. Langdale is a practicing attorney at law at Valdon, where they will reside after a trip to Asheville and Lake Toxabend.

head, in Staunton, and will later visit relatives at Middlebrook before returning to Richmond.

Miss Lillian Wattson, of West Grace Street, is the guest of the Misses Lee, in Towson, Md.

FIRE AT PIEDMONT MILLS.

FIRE AT PIEDMONT MILLS.

FIRE AT PIEDMONT MILLS.

BE A BIGAMIST WHEN IT MEANS CATCHING TITLES

Misses Numsen returned to their ome in Baltimore to-day, after a visit their sister, Mrs. J. Pinkney Wight-an.

Answer Book and Make as Many Answers as You Desire.

A man who had unwisely married several dozen women without troubling to obtain the necessary decrees of distribution of the necessary decrees distribution of the necessary decrees of of the neces Miss Washington is the guest of Mrs. James Cox.

Mrs. Hugh Denoon and son, Charles, have returned to their home at Aileo, after spending several days with Mrs. Charles Bridges.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blanton, of Richmond, were guests this week of Dr. and Mrs. S. C. Hatcher.

Miss Ophelia Nelson is visiting her cousin, Miss Nancy Sydnor.

Miss Nannie Goddin, who has been spending some time at the Henry Clay Inn., has returned to Richmond.

Miss Elizabeth Brander is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William Taliaforro.

Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins and Miss Hopkins, of Richmond, are at the Henry Clay Inn.

The watermelon feest and informal.

ALBERT STEIN KING OF SHOES. Corner 5th and Broad

But its chief charm is in the fact that with an Answer Book you need secure only one copy of each picture, even though you make ten answers to each picture. Four more days and the Answer Book will be offered you.

BIRTHDAY RINGS.

Vacation Shoes in endless, variety,

CHICHESTER S PILLS THE DIANOND BRAND
Ladical Ask your Druggist for Chiledea-ter's Dianond Brand
Pilis in Red and doid metalitic lates, scated with Blue Ribbeq.
Take no other, Ray of your Drangfat, Ark for Chil-Olas, TeB at DIANOND BRAND PILIA, for Add years known as Best, fiscent, Always Reliable
Colin DV DDILIGIEVE EMEDIALEURS SOLD BY DRUGGISTS EVERYWHERE

PARKER'S
HAIR BALSAM
Cleaness and beantifles the hair fromotes a luxuriant growth.
Never Pails to Restore Gray
Hair to its Youthful Color.
Prevents hair failing.

ing on the water front at Port Norfolk with a good attendance.

The conference was addressed by the president, W. J. Stone, of Richmond. He said in his opening remarks that he felt very grateful for the many courtesies shown by the people of Port Norfolk, and stated that mutual benefit would be derived from this assessment. would be derived from this encamp-ment. "It shall be our aim," he said, "to show in every way possible our ap-preciation for this extended hospi-